

Sudanese Standing Together

as equal citizens celebrating Sudan's ethnic, cultural and religious diversity

Saturday

April 29, 2006

7:00 pm [dinner]

Best Western Capitol Skyline Hotel
10 'I' Street SW (at S. Capitol SE)
Washington DC

To RSVP or to send a greeting to the Sudanese diaspora and visiting dignitaries please contact
Esther Sprague 415/713-2495 or ggcc@ggcc.org

Live webcast available at www.stopgenocidenow.org

Hosted by Dr. Akec Khoc
former SPLM representative, community elder, and human rights activist

Sponsored by Sudan Sunrise,
Save Darfur Coalition, Stop Genocide Now, and Golden Gate Community Church

attire: business casual

In conjunction with the Drive to Stop Genocide Now and the Rally to Stop Genocide

www.stopgenocidenow.org
www.savedarfur.org

Featuring

- Omar Ismaiel, Program Director, Darfur Peace and Development Association
- Nurrudin Mannan, President, Sudan Human Rights Organization
- Omer Idris, Eastern Alliance
- Adam Shogar, SLM leader, Chad
- John Prendergast, Senior Adviser with the International Crisis Group
- Alhaji Shiek Musa Ahmed Omar, Zagawa tribe, Chad
- Emmanuel Kemba, Sudanese musician and peace activist

Please open your schedule to gather with Sudanese peace movement leaders to reach across cultural, religious and historical barriers and stand together as equal citizens for common goals:

- an end to genocide,
- religious freedom for all,
- and a lasting and just peace in the country of Sudan.

Lend your credibility and support to this pivotal event on the eve of Washington DC's historic Rally to Stop Genocide.