The Honorable Hillary Rodham Clinton
Secretary of State.

Dear Secretary of State,

Sudan is one of the Countries to adopt a successful policy of reintegration of former detainees into their original societies, free from a feeling of animosity, hostility or antagonism towards The United States or its People.

It is worth mentioning that the Government of Sudan has no record of torturing or detaining former prisoners returning from the custody in Guantanamo, in stead, that they are receiving treatment in accordance with the international Humanitarian Laws. The Government of Sudan stands for verification of these pledges by the Reviewing Board or any other US official.

Former detainees are active, dedicated and committed to their social and economic reintegration programs. They are now considerably contributing to the well-being of their extended families and societies as a whole.

The positive policy of political engagement by the Obama Administration with the Islamic World in general, and the Sudan in particulars very much welcomed by the government of the Sudan.

In this regard, Sudan is ready to cooperate with President Obama in his effort to close down Guantanamo Bay Facility by accepting home all Sudanese detainees.

The Government of Sudan strongly believes the United States Administration shall release and repatriate all Sudanese nationals detained in Guantanamo Bay facility.

Sincerely,

Deng Alor Kuol
Minister of Foreign Affairs
Republic of Sudan
